TRUTH & RECONCILIATION WEEK

Truth and Reconciliation Day honours the Indigenous children taken through the residential school system and recognizes the lasting impacts on their families and communities.

MONDAY, SEPT. 28

8:30 a.m.

Opening Ceremony

Roundabout
Front Entrance
Champlain Building

Teachers are encouraged to bring their class!*

5:30 p.m.

Bandeen Hall

Screening of the documentary WaaPaKe, which explores the intergenerational trauma and lingering scars of the Canadian residential school system.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 29

12:30 p.m.

Conversation with
Maya Cousineau Mollen,
Innu Canadian Poet.

TBD

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 30

National Day of Truth and Reconciliation

12:30 p.m.

Every Child Matters Walk

Coulter Field

THURSDAY, OCT. 1

12:30 p.m.

Dialogues on Identity:
First Nations, Inuit, Métis
with Ryley Blake

Kwigw8mna

FRIDAY, OCT. 2

11:00 a.m.

Social Event

Student Lounge
Champlain Building

The story behind the orange shirt.
The orange shirt symbolizes the loss of identity, culture, and belonging experienced by Indigenous children, inspired by Phyllis Jack Webstad's story of having her new orange shirt confiscated on her first day at a residential school at the age of 6.

1971 Champlain COLLEGE • LENNOXVILLE